This soothing and invigorating Thai massage relaxes the foot, leg and back muscles and specifically stimulates blood circulation. ## Crystal Lotus massage

A full-body massage with traditional Asian massage elements, reflex zone therapy and soothing caresses for your soul.

With the energy stone rose quartz, your reflex zones are gently and evenly spread from the feet towards the head and thus support the compensation of any existing blockages. Afterwards, enjoy a massage with warm oil. Experience complete relaxation and come into contact with your own energy. Let the energy of the treatment sink in with a wellness drink to conclude the treatment.

Rose quartz harmony

Embark on a relaxing journey for body and soul. Your masseuse gently removes dead skin cells as well as rough spots. The moisture factors contained in the lotus scrub give your skin a rosy, vital and firmer appearance. The following active substances of the massage oil can thus be optimally absorbed. Finally, your blockages are solved with energy stones. To ensure that the powerful effect of the treatment can unfold, we serve you a tasty wellness drink at the end for you to enjoy.
